Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 36 and 47-49 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

In regard to claims 36 and 47-49, the prior art, alone or in combination, does not teach or fairly suggest a multimedia messaging server generating a request including a reference to a location of message content located on a carousel file server system and a reference to a location of the message configuration located on the carousel file server system...wherein upon receiving the request, the multimedia messaging client application retrieves the message content and the message configuration at the referenced locations of the carousel file server system and associates the message content and the message configuration for presentation of the message content according to the message configuration.

The Matthews reference (5,874,985) discloses transmitting the message content and a reference to the location of the message configuration located in the receiver system and wherein the multimedia messaging client application retrieves the message content and the message configuration and associates the message content and the message configuration for presentation of the message content according to the message configuration. However, Matthews fails to disclose transmitting a reference to the message content and message configuration located on a file carousel server located within the headend.

The Hendricks reference (5,659,350) discloses transmitting the message content and the message configuration to the receiver system and wherein the multimedia messaging client application retrieves the message content and the message configuration and associates the message content and the message configuration for presentation of the message content according to the message configuration. However, Hendricks fails to disclose transmitting a reference to the message content and message configuration located on a file carousel server located within the headend.

The Tanaka reference (5,659,350) discloses transmitting a reference to content to a television receiver to allow the retrieval of additional content by the receiver system. However, Tanaka fails to disclose transmitting a reference to the message content and message configuration located on a file carousel server located within the headend.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

2. The following are suggested formats for either a Certificate of Mailing or Certificate of Transmission under 37 CFR 1.8(a). The certification may be included with all correspondence concerning this application or proceeding to establish a date of mailing or transmission under 37 CFR 1.8(a). Proper use of this procedure will result in
